

LILLE
POST-KEYNESIAN CONFERENCE
December 9-11, 2020

Economic Possibilities
for our Grandchildren
90 YEARS LATER

Post-Keynesian Conference Webinar

University of Lille

December 9 -10, 2020

information and registration:

gpklille@gmail.com

Schedule

Wednesday, December 9 (Paris time)

Round table discussion (in french)

Chair: Laurent cordonnier

Tous keynésiens ?

Jean-François Ponsot et Jonathan Marie

Discussants:

- Edwin Le Héron (Sciences Po Bordeaux)
- Florence Jany-Catrice (Université de Lille)
- Romaric Godin (Mediapart)

"Plenary" session 1

Chair: Jordan Melmiès

Speakers:

- Jan Kregel (Levy Economics Institute):
Will we ever be free from the "Economic Problem"?
- Jesper Jespersen (Roskilde University):
Economic possibilities for our grandchildren has to be taken seriously

Schedule

Thursday, December 10 (Paris time)

"Plenary" session 2

Chair: Loïck Tange

Speakers:

– Randall Wray (Levy Economics Institute and Bard College) :

How to Pay for the Multiple Pandemics We Face: an MMT Approach

– Daniela Prates (Unctad):

Debt vulnerabilities in developing countries: what did the COVID-19 crisis bring to light?

– Özlem Onaran (University of Greenwich) :
Inequalities, fiscal policy and development: synthesizing post Keynesian and feminist economics for post Covid-19 economic policy

2:00 pm – 4:00 pm

5:00 pm – 7:00 pm

5:00 pm – 7:00 pm

